

Williams Industrial Services Group Comments on Koontz-Wagner Bankruptcy Filing

July 11, 2018

IRVING, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 11, 2018-- Williams Industrial Services Group Inc. ("Williams" or "the Company") (OTC:WLMS), a general and specialty construction services company, commented today on the filing of Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceeding by its discontinued operation and wholly-owned subsidiary, Koontz-Wagner Custom Controls Holdings LLC ("Koontz-Wagner").

Tracy Pagliara, President and CEO of Williams, stated, "It has been a slow and difficult process to complete the strategic alternatives review for Koontz-Wagner. After their second sales effort did not go as planned, Koontz-Wagner assessed a number of other options and, in consultation with its professional advisors, came to an informed conclusion that a Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing was most appropriate under the circumstances."

Williams also noted that its lender has agreed to waive the event of default that would have occurred under the term loan agreement as a result of Koontz-Wagner's Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing. The lender also extended through April 1, 2020 the mandatory pre-payment date and financial covenant compliance date to June 30, 2020 under the term loan agreement. The Company and its lender have reached an agreement in principle regarding new terms for refinancing the current term loan and will endeavor to finalize a new term loan agreement prior to August 31, 2018.

Mr. Pagliara concluded, "We can now focus our efforts on reducing costs, restructuring the organization, closing the Dallas office, obtaining an asset-based revolver and refinancing our debt while expanding Williams' business prospects."

As of July 1, 2018, the Company had $11.7 million of cash, of which $6.5 million was restricted for letters of credit, and $26.5 million in borrowings. Backlog from continuing operations at the end of Q2 2018 was approximately $175 million.
